The padlocks used for locking ballot-boxes shall have a different combination. (2.) If by reason of lack of time it has not been possible to sort to the proper ballot-boxes all the outer envelopes received on any day, such outer envelopes shall be placed by the Supervising Special Deputy Returning Officer in special ballot-boxes provided for the purpose. Such ballot-boxes shall then be locked and sealed in the manner prescribed in regulation 46 and shall be kept so locked until the sorting of the outer envelopes is proceeded with on the day following, when these boxes shall be opened and the sorting of the outer envelopes therein proceeded with.

Safe-keeping of outer envelopes not sorted by the end of day.

An outer envelope upon which the signature of both the Special Deputy Returning Officer and the elector concerned or upon which the place of residence of the elector during the month preceding his becoming a member of the Forces does not appear shall be laid aside unopened. The Supervising Special Deputy Returning Officer shall endorse on each such outer envelope the reason why that envelope has been laid aside, and the ballot therein shall be deemed a rejected ballot.

If no extra space in the ballot-box can be secured by this means, an additional ballot-box may be used for such electoral district, after it has been marked, examined, locked, and sealed as prescribed in these regulations. Whenever it has become necessary to open a ballot-box pursuant to the provisions of this regulation, the scrutineers shall prepare a statement setting forth the reasons for such operation and the date thereof. The scrutineers shall both sign the said statement and deposit it in the ballot-box before the ballot-box is again locked and sealed.

Removal of outer envelopes.

53. The contents of one ballot-box shall be placed upon a table situated in such a manner that the contents will not be mixed with the contents of any other box and the ballot-box shall again be locked and sealed. Each outer envelope shall then be opened and the inner envelope taken therefrom and immediately placed, unopened, in the ballot-box from which the outer envelope was taken. This operation shall be carried on alphabetically until all the ballot-boxes for all the electoral districts in British Columbia have been completed. As each ballot-box is completed the box will be locked and sealed, and the Supervising Deputy Returning Officer shall take the custody thereof.

Counting of ballot-papers.

54. When all the outer envelopes for all the electoral districts in British Columbia have been opened and the inner envelopes replaced in the ballot-boxes, as directed in regulation 53, the Supervising Special Deputy Returning Officer shall, proceeding alphabetically, unlock one box at a time and place the contents of that box upon a table. The scrutineers, working in pairs in the manner provided in regulation 52, shall then open the inner envelopes and count the votes for each candidate, and, at the conclusion of the count, the Special Poll Clerk shall enter the results on the statement in Form 9 and shall sign the statement and the two scrutineers shall certify the statement. The Special Poll Clerk shall make the statement in quadruplicate and each shall be signed and certified and the Special Poll Clerk shall attach one to the ballot-papers, and shall deliver one (to be known as the "official statement") to the Supervising Special Deputy Returning Officer, and each scrutineer shall retain one copy. outer envelopes.

56. No ballot-paper shall be rejected for uncertainty as to the candidate to be voted for by reason only of the mis-spelling of any name if, notwithstanding such mis-spelling, it is possible by examination of the ballot-paper to ascertain for whom the elector intended to vote; nor shall any ballot be rejected on the ground that it contains an identifying mark, unless such mark is obviously intended as such.

Ballot-paper not to be rejected for uncertainty.

57. If during the count any scrutineer requests that a ballot-paper be rejected and states his reason for such request the Supervising Special Deputy Returning Officer may, after examination of the ballot-paper, reject it on any of the following grounds:—

Rejection of ballot-paper.

- (a.) That the ballot-paper is not one of the ballot-papers supplied by the Deputy Provincial Secretary:

- (b.) Vancouver-Point Grey or Victoria City, when he may vote for three candidates.

Before receiving a ballot-paper the elector will state to the Special Deputy Returning Officer the electoral district in which he was resident before becoming a member of the Forces and make the declaration required by the Special Deputy Returning Officer.
